

Supreme Court of Pennsylvania,

EASTERN DISTRICT.

CHAS. S. GREENE, Prothonotary.

Philadelphia, 2/16 1886

Dear Sir:

I take pleasure in offering you in exchange for your two duplicate sets of 1852, Cop. The 1877 $5. piece the two medals, & also a Commercial dollar, one of the most valuable of the U.S. Pattern & a piece that the Mint Cabinet is not complete without.
I have sent the piece to Mr. McClure and I should like a report to-day, if possible, as the 1872 dollar, will I think go out of my possession in a day or two,

Yours truly
H. P. Newlin

Am Du Ref

3202

Phila. Pa.

Feb 10/86

H. P. Newlin

Takes pleasure in offering in exchange for two duplicate sets of 1882.
the 1877 5th Piece and two medals, also a commercial dollar.

App<sup>d</sup> D<sup>mt</sup> Mint of the United States at Philadelphia, Sup<sup>d</sup> February 16, 1886.

Sir, I recommend Mr. Newlin's proposal, although the Commercial dollar is in copper.
 I do not suppose we will be able to obtain one in silver as they are very rare
 and high priced,

R. A. McClure
 Curator

Now, Lt. Mr. Fox,
 Superintendent,

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 137

[Abstract:] Takes pleasure in offering in exchange for two duplicate sets of 1882...

Supreme Court of Pennsylvania,
Eastern District,
Philadelphia,
February 16, 1886

Dear Sir:

I take pleasure in offering you in exchange for your two duplicate sets of 1882, Cop. The 1877 $5 piece the two medals, & also a commercial dollar. Are of the most valuable of the U.S. Patterns & a piece that the Mint Cabinet is not complete without I have sent the piece & Mr. McClure, and I should like a report to-day, if possible, as the 1872 Dollar, will I think go out of my possession in a day or two.

Yours truly,
H.P. Newlin

Hon. D.M. Fox.

[Enclosed note:]

Appd. D.M.F.
Supt.

Mint of the United States at Philadelphia,
February 16, 1886

Sir,

I recommend Mr. Newlin's proposal, although the commercial dollar is in copper. I do not suppose we will be able to obtain one in silver as they are very rare and high priced.

R.A. McClure
Curator

Hon. D.M. Fox,
Superintendent.